Have Not Struck Oil Yet.
The company that has been drilling for oil in Horn Settlement this summer has drilled two holes and abandoned both of them without striking oil. The first hole was drilled on land of W. H. Schugers to depth of over 2,600 feet. A small amount of gas, not in paying quantity, was struck in this well. The second well, which was abandoned the latter part of last week, was drilled near M. M. Moore's. This well was drilled over 2,500 feet deep, but did not strike either gas or oil. Some person started a report last Wednesday that oil had been found at this well, but it was a false report. The company is talking of drilling another hole. The third hole may be the lucky one.

Will Report Favorable.
Some of the industries south of town have been trying for two years to get a public road from the silk mill through to connect with the public road at S. M. Gourley's, but have been unable to get viewers to report favorable on the new road. During the two years the court appointed three or four sets of viewers. The last viewers appointed by the court viewed the road Saturday and we understand they will report in favor of opening this road. The Winslow township supervisors were willing to open a road from silk mill down to steel plant and Reynoldsville Brick & Tile Company plant, but on account of bridge across the creek at that point and a large fill, they opposed opening the road through to Gourley's. If the road is opened it will shorten the distance into town for people living at Wishaw, Panic and that section.

The Methodist Sunday school of this place will hold a picnic in Romantic Park, Sykesville, Thursday of next week, August 16.

RAILROAD FARES REDUCED.
Pennsy will Issue $20.00 Mileage Books Good for Anyone to Ride On.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company announced last week that on and after September 1st, 1906, that company will issue $20.00 mileage books—1,000 miles on all lines east of Pittsburg and Erie, and that the use of these books will not be restricted to person whose name appears on mileage book, but that it will be accepted for transportation from any person who presents it. The interchangeable mileage book sold by the P. R. R., valid over six railroad systems besides the Pennsylvania, will not be transferable and will require a deposit of $10.00, same as charged heretofore, to guarantee its use exclusively by the purchaser. The company also decided to reduce the maximum one-way fare to 2 1/2 cents per mile. This reduction will not go into effect until after November 1st.

Small Boy Robbed.
Ronald McDonald, eleven year son of Lawyer G. M. McDonald, who spent three months in Boston, Mass., and returned home alone a few days ago, had money stolen from him on train between Boston and Albany on his way home. Fortunately the lad did not have all his money and ticket in one pocket or he would have been in a predicament so far away from home. Ronald had bought some thing on the train and had a five dollar bill changed. He put two or three paper dollars in an envelope, stuck envelope into his pocket and after while fell asleep. When he awakened the envelope with money in was gone. Some contemptible thief had seen the boy put money in the envelope and had stolen it while he slept. Ronald notified the conductor but the money was not recovered.

Grange Ox Roast.
The ox roast given in Hetrick's grove, Horntown, last Saturday under the auspices of the Horntown Grange, was attended by about eight hundred people. A good dinner was served for 25 cents. Almost five hundred tickets were sold for dinner and a large number of people drove into grove after dinner. Supper was served to a large crowd. This was the first ox roast given by Horntown Grange, but it was a success in every detail. The large crowd apparently enjoyed the event.

The Emerickville brass band was present and furnished music for the pleasure seekers. This band, under the leadership of Prof. Kinney, has developed into a very good band. The music at the ox roast was very creditable.

The Horntown Grangers expect to hold an ox roast in the same grove next year.

Cheap Towns.
Reynoldsville, Sykesville and Brookville will be here in force to-day for the reason that all these towns are cheap and when you advertise two league games for twenty-five cents you can depend that all these cheap people will be on hand, but let them come and let them go home feeling that they have got the worth of their money. It will do them good.—DuBois Journal Aug. 4.

We publish the above item without comment only to say that it did not help swell the crowd at the "double header" Saturday. The attempted apology of the Journal Sunday was a little thin.

Pearl Wedding Anniversary.
Mr. and Mrs. John R. Keys, of Emerickville, celebrated their pearl wedding—thirtieth anniversary—yesterday. A large number of friends were present. They received some very nice presents. Miss Eleanor Reed, of this place, and Mrs. Kate Burns, of DuBois, were among the guests at the wedding anniversary.

THREE KILLED IN WRECK.
One of the Men Has Brothers Here and Another Has Brother-in-Law at This Place.

Last Thursday night or early Friday morning a freight wreck occurred on what is known as the Riebold cut off of B. R. & P. R'y near Butler, and three men were killed, two of whom had relatives at Reynoldsville. The men killed were Harry B. Field, conductor, of Butler, who was married to a sister of Mrs. A. T. Bing, of Reynoldsville, Samuel Smith, brakeman, of Punxsutawney, brother of Nelson and William Smith, of Reynoldsville, Jerome Hanlin, fireman, of Butler.

The wreck occurred, according to reports, through the carelessness of a B. & O. freight crew who had left freight cars standing on main track without sending out a flag or having any lights on the cars and the B. R. & P. freight train crashed into the cars without warning. The engineer miraculously escaped the fate of the conductor, brakeman and fireman by being thrown through the cab window.

Samuel Smith, aged 21 years, 2 months and 10 days, was known to a number of our people, having worked here last year with his brother, Nelson Smith, and also worked in the silk mill a short time. Interment was made at Oliveburg cemetery Saturday afternoon. Nelson and William Smith attended the funeral of their brother. While in Reynoldsville last year Samuel took out a $1,000 life insurance policy. He was a member of the Eagle lodge at Punxsutawney.

Harry B. Field had been a conductor on the B. R. & P. for a number of years. He was married to Edith Barlow, of DuBois. His body was taken to Bradford Sunday and interred at that place.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Bing attended the funeral. Mrs. Bing went to Butler Friday, as soon as possible after she heard of the death of her brother-in-law, and Mr. Bing met the funeral party at Punxsutawney Sunday noon.

WILLIAM DAILEY DEAD.
Had Resided in Beechwoods a Number of Years.

William Dailey, a Beechwoods farmer, died at his home yesterday afternoon, August 7, 1906. Stomach trouble was cause of his death. He was a brother-in-law of Mrs. John Hasson and an uncle of Mrs. G. M. McDonald and J. M. Dailey, of Reynoldsville. Deceased had resided in Beechwoods about fifty years. He was about 70 years old. Was born in Ireland. He is survived by his wife, two sons, John and James, one sister, Mrs. George Brenholtz and two brothers, J. M. Dailey, of Penfield, and Prof. J. G. Dailey, the noted singer.

Funeral service at his late residence in Washington township at 1.00 p. m. to-morrow, Thursday.

Swallowed Open Safety Pin.
About six weeks ago Louisa, one year old daughter of Dr. and Mrs. R. De Vere King, swallowed an open safety pin. The pin was in the child's stomach and bowels three weeks. After the pin passed out of the child she was so sore that she would cry when moved out of a certain position. Dr. King and wife took Louisa to the Mercy Hospital in Pittsburg last Friday and had a specialist give her a careful examination, but he was unable to locate cause of pain. The child was brought home again and is not suffering now as much as she did at first. It is remarkable how the open safety pin got through the child.

To Install Block System.
In the near future the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will install the block signal system on the Allegheny Division, formerly called the Low Grade Division. At non-telegraph stations telephones will be used to report to nearest telegraph office. A crew of men have been in town a couple of days who are working on the telephone line on this division. The P. R. R. Co. is putting in its own telephone line.

NOBLE WOMAN GONE.
Mrs. Philip Koehler Peacefully Passed From Earthly Scenes Monday in Mercy Hospital, Pittsburg.

At 9.00 p. m. Monday, August 6, 1906, in the Mercy Hospital in Pittsburg, Mrs. Philip Koehler, of Reynoldsville, passed out of this life without a struggle. Mrs. Koehler had been suffering more or less for five years with stomach trouble, but the past six months her suffering had been intense at times and her condition had become so critical that an operation was the only hope of prolonging her life. Monday of last week she went to Mercy Hospital and Friday forenoon was operated on. Her case had been correctly diagnosed; she could only have lived a short time without the operation.

Mrs. Koehler had rallied from the operation and was apparently getting along nicely until late Monday afternoon when there was a change and in a few hours she died. Mr. Koehler and his son, Roman, spent over an hour with her Monday afternoon, leaving the hospital about four o'clock, at Mrs. Koehler's request, to go to Donora to spend the night at home of Roman that Mr. Koehler might get a good night's rest. When Mr. Koehler reached the home of his son about six o'clock he found a message awaiting him that his wife was dying. By running a quarter of a mile he caught a train as it was pulling out of Donora station and reached the hospital about three-quarters of an hour before his wife passed out of this life. Had he been a half minute later at Donora he would have been too late to have had a farewell talk and held her hand while she was crossing the valley of death. When Mr. Koehler arrived at hospital Mrs. Koehler knew that her lamp of life was flickering and that she had only a short time to live, yet she talked calmly with her husband about dying, assured him she was not afraid to depart, made some requests for her youngest son, Robert, and then peacefully fell asleep never to awaken again. She died as she had lived, with implicit faith and trust in the Savior. No wonder that Moses, the Great Law Giver, said: "Let me die the death of the righteous."

She had a beautiful character. Kind, unselfish, charitable, modest and amiable, a devoted wife and mother and a very kind neighbor. Over twenty years ago she united with the Methodist Episcopal church and lived a consistent christian life, always faithful in attending church services when health permitted. She was a member of the Foreign Missionary Society of the church.

Martha Barry was maiden name of deceased. She was born in Spragueville, Monroe Co., Pa., February 20, 1854, and was 52 years, 5 months and 17 days old at time of death. April 14, 1873, was united in marriage to Philip Koehler. In 1883, twenty-three years ago, Mr. and Mrs. Koehler moved to West Reynoldsville.

Mrs. Koehler is survived by her husband, two sons and two daughters: Mrs. C. K. Hawthorn, of DuBois, Roman E. Koehler, of Donora, editor of Donora American, Mrs. V. L. Moore, of Washington township, and Robert Koehler at home.

The body of Mrs. Koehler was brought to the family residence on the 6.25 train last evening, and funeral service will be held in the M. E. church at 2.00 p. m. to-morrow, Thursday, conducted by Dr. J. A. Parsons, pastor of the church. Interment will be made in Reynoldsville Cemetery.

The Keystone Band.
The Keystone band of Reynoldsville, gave a concert in front of the Waverly Hotel last night to a crowd of about 500 people. The Keystone is one of the oldest and best musical organizations in western Pennsylvania at the present time and numbers among its membership musicians of rare ability. The bass solo by George Beck was a masterpiece performance and was highly appreciated. The people of Reynoldsville may well feel proud of their band and should show their appreciation by liberal support.—Punxsutawney Republican.
